You may know Knitr from RMarkdown or Quarto to do the same in Markdown-based documents, and you will find that the handling is very similar.Getting started with OverleafAfter creating a new project, the first step in Overleaf is to save an ¢ÂÂÂ.Rtex¢ÃÂÂ file, which would be the pendant to ¢ÂÂÂRmd¢ÃÂÂ in R Markdown.We can define a minimum set-up for your LaTeX, or Rtex enviroment:Using R Code in offline-LaTeX documentsFor other latex editors, the following guide is very similar, except that you save the file as *.Rnw. Please note that Knitr is pre-installed on Overleaf, and this guide assumes this is the case on your computer. To convert the document to a PDF:R -e 'library(knitr);knit("main.Rnw")'R as code chunk the LaTeX documentTo include R code in the document, we can specify it with the following delimiters:We start with = and end with @ at the end of the code chunk in R.In this example, we define a function to calculate the greatest common divisor of two integers using the Euclidean algorithm:Then when compiling in Overleaf, the following output comes:Example CodechunkNotice that after calling the function, the result is output in the code chunk, namely [1] 252.Options in CodechunkKnitr comes along with a few options which you declare within= . For Example= will display everythin in black.R as or inline code in the LaTeX documentWith the help of inline code, it is possible to output R-expressions within the body text of an *.Rtex file by simply placing the code in $\Sexpr{RCODE}$. RCODE here is any R expression you can define between the brackets. You can also call a function from a previous section of R code, such as gcd from our example.Example inline codeThe sum of the natural numbers from 1 to 100 is equal to $\Sexpr{1:100}$ and the greatest common divisor of 143 and 65 is$\Sexpr{gcd(143,65}$External Scripts and DataYou can easily upload or ¬â ¢Â ¦â¬â ¢Ã-ottircs neb ¨Ä orbil II .itaibmac onos non itnedecerp i es otnemucod li ilipmoc ehc atlov ingo itiugese eresse onabbed non ehc odom ni ,opmet id Ätisnetni atla da iloclac id ehcac alled itatlusiR ²Âup rtinK emoc us ovitamrofni etnemralocitrap ¨Ä de ametsis led erecsiv el ettut ehcna ageipS .)aigoloncet alled irottel i rep ecidneppa'nu us ecidoc li ottut odnatsops(eraf ovevod ehc itnazzarabmi esoc elled enucla erarigga rep ihccurt e)nohtyP emoC esrevid eugnil noc isrargetni(eraf essetop rtinK ehc aedi oveva non ehc esoc :eedi id oro'd areinim anu "" ... emoc ,onretni orol la rtinK otargetni onnah inucla e ,nwodkraM e LMTH itnemucod i rep icitapmis e irutam irotide itlom onos iC .etnematterid erotide'l onretni'llad R a R ecidoc id ihccolb eraivni rep ,oilgem arocna e ,)(tinK :: rtinK odnamoc li eratigid e R erirpa id ecevni rotide nu id onretni'lla LMTH/FDP us enigiro id itnemucod i eralipmoc rep RTINK e R eramaihc omairediseD .2 ;atlov ingo irettarac itseuq eratigid id ecevni areitsat id otnemagelloc nu noc @ e = >>
